“ Carlos was good man with a solid heart. We were friends for over 20 years and In all that time I honestly can't say a single bad thing about him. My prayers are with his family that he has left behind. May your hearts find peace and your thoughts stay positive for he is in a better place now. We will see you again soon Carlos my friend. Take care of those you love from up above and give them comfort my brother. You were loved by those who knew you well and you will never be forgotten. it is goodbye for now my brother but we will meet again. Much love and respect to family and friends stay strong. Carlos would not want you to cry he would want you to throw a big party and remember him for who he has always been.....this is from his friend Chris of Visalia
