“ back in the late 1970s Phil and I worked together at a company called ABM working a late shift. I was only 17 years old . Phil was working two jobs at the time, AMB and Willitts pump.

Phil saw something in me and put in a good word in with the owners at willitts pump and got me a job there. I never left the company , and I now own it. Phil truly was a great hard working man , and reminded me a lot of my Dad. I will always be truly grateful to him for what he did for me.

Ken, thank you so much for sharing that memory of our father. A strong ethic is something he stressed in us too. Good to hear Willitts is on good hands.
